Kilis 7 Aralık University is a public, non-profit higher education institution in south-eastern Türkiye, on the border with Syria. It focuses on student-centred learning, employability-oriented competencies and systematic quality improvement, and hosts one of the highest proportions of international students among Turkish regional universities. Internationalisation is a strategic pillar: the International Relations Office (IRO) manages Erasmus+ KA131/KA171 mobility, inter-institutional agreements, EU-funded projects (KA220, Jean Monnet) and international student admission.
